THE INVITATION

ACCA would like to congratulate you on achieving ACCA membership. This is a huge milestone in your career and ACCA believes that you should celebrate in style. ACCA UK is delighted to invite you and a guest to join other new members at our flagship event.

This special event will be held in the BP Theatre and East Foyer at The British Museum on Wednesday 4 June 2008.

We recognise that your career aspirations and development will be of utmost importance to you, so we have invited Jeff Grout, respected career management guru, columnist and commentator as our keynote speaker. Jeff will enlighten you with his inside secrets on the job market, and advise you on how best to plan and succeed in your chosen field. He will motivate and inspire you with his strategies and tactics, developed through his extensive work with high achievers from the fields of business, sport and the media.

The event concludes with a champagne reception with canapés, with plenty of opportunity for you to meet and network with your ACCA contemporaries, ACCA staff and Council members.

ACCA UK very much hopes that you will be able to attend what will be a very special and memorable occasion.
